

ONCE I WILL BE HAPPY AGAIN

MIXED BY DJ ZERWIX

Nuff respect and big shout (the fuck ups) out to everybody! In this case it means really everybody, because this project was based on melancholic, sad, desperate mood and that is usually based on some negative action. Somebody has to do this dirty work. Positive and negative, both are necessary. Nothing is just black and white (this time yellow, for cuter design). Also nobody is! But there should be less bullshittin' out there. Try to be more positive, it won't kill you.

Preparations and recordings were for me drugs to overcome this mess. Hope you enjoy it! Hope it'll help!
